Wm. Arrow, of Wilkesbarre, has run away with his brother's wife. Women should never fool with a beat and Arrow.

It is said that during eight years Lord Nelson never washed his hands. He must have been afraid the water would rust his nails.

The Government should have found a steamer with some more aesthetic name than Rogers to send after the Jeanette. Naval ways are past finding out.

Large numbers of petrified fish have lately been found in the far West. This should be a warning to anglers in the habit of telling fish stories.

In the country: Wife—"John, I hear something out at the spring, I'm sure I do." John—"Oh, don't be troubled; it's only a hare trying to get in the butter."

When Queen Anne told Dr. South that his sermon was too short, he replied that he would have made it shorter had he more time. Don't fail to relate this anecdote to your pastor.

Skeletons of men eight feet high have recently been unearthed at Montello, Wis. The early inhabitants of Wisconsin appear to have lived a good deal longer than their successors.

David Davis never gives away any news. The only piece of news he would like to give away—the news of his election to the Presidency—he is not likely ever to have an opportunity to tell.

"And I further disinherit and prohibit from participation in the distribution of my estate such of my male descendants as persist in wearing moustaches," says the will of the recent Mr. Bechtel, of Pennsylvania.

"I never used such a medicine. Never—well—hardly ever. It foams and sparkles just like a glass of soda water. Oh! it is perfectly splendid. One swallow cures heartburn and acid stomach. So cooling and delightful in fevers and sick headache. For habitual constipation, I use it all the time, and prefer it to anything else. It is sold at 50 cents per bottle of 20 doses, and is known as Bailey's BALNE APERTANT." Thus speaks a most sensible woman.

BONANZA! O BONANZA! N BONANZA! A BONANZA! N BONANZA! Z BONANZA! A BONANZA!

TO THE LADIES OF Ironton AND VICINITY:

We have bought out the Assignee's stock of Ladies' and Children's FINE SHOES, belonging to a LARGE RETAIL STORE in St. Louis, known as the "Big Boot." This stock is FROM THE BEST MANUFACTURERS of Ladies' and Children's Shoes in the country

—being ROCHESTER, PHILADELPHIA, CHICAGO, BUFFALO, and ST. LOUIS CUSTOM-MADE SHOES.

We also have among this lot, a number of A. W. Miles' FINE CUSTOM-MADE GAITERS, BOYS' BOOTS and LADIES' FINE CALF SHOES.

We pay cash for all we buy, and will sell these goods LOWER than they can be bought by the car-load!

—OUR MOTTO: "Small Profits and Quick Sales!"—

We have just received FIVE LARGE CASES of CLOTHING, LADIES' and CHILDREN'S WOOL HOSE, JEANS,

KNIT JACKETS, and a large invoice of HATS and CAPS,

FROM A LATE BANKRUPT STOCK AT CAIRO!

We intend to make "Rome howl" for a few weeks!

WE WILL SAY TO THE PEOPLE AT LARGE THAT WE WILL SELL SO CHEAP THAT we cannot afford to give away a CHROMO, or any other prize!

WE HOPE OUR GOODS WILL SELL THEMSELVES.

Look Out for THE BONANZA'S NEW SHOE STORE for LADIES!

WE HAVE BOUGHT SOME OF THE STOCK OF FINE SOLID GOLD JEWELRY,

BELONGING TO THE LATE W. C. DEFRIEZ, OLIVE STREET, ST. LOUIS, COMPRISING LADIES'

SETTS, FINE RINGS, &c. WILL BE SOLD AT THE PRICE OF OLD GOLD.
